

Radio Drama

Part Two of the 'Kaleidoscope Project' – rehearsals at King's Community Church and recording at SHMU studio, Torry Youth & Leisure Centre

Magic Wendy

Participants learn to project their voices, 1, 2, 3, 4!!!

Scottish versus Syrian

Our ladies enjoying the drama exercises

Omar, Naser and Salih

Take the stage with Director Mohammad Abou Laban instructing

In the SHMU studio

Arabic script of the pilot episode

Raniya and Hayjar

Getting ready to record in the studio

Raniya and Hayjar

Studio stars

Highland Games

Give Them A Sporting Chance gifts a Scottish summer holiday experience to the Syrian New Scots

Twins Adnan and Fatima, Aisha and Aziz

Enjoying the sights and sounds

Ahmad, Nasseem and Mohamad

Competing in the boys' race 12-15 Handicap Open

Daood

Winner of the men's race

Azad and Astera

Proud dad to Astera, born in Aberdeen 2017

The Bell family

Giving out gifts from Syria to all the families

Bilal, Mohamed and Mohammad Ahmad

Enjoying The Ballater & District, 47th Culter BBs, Kintore, Towie & District, Ellon & District Royal British Legion, Dalhousie and the Royal Regiment of Scotland Pipes and Drums Pipe Bands

Shahed

Cheering on the pipe bands and the arrival of the Chieftain

Bilal (formerly scared of dogs)

Meeting the locals

Aisha

Enjoying the Scottish countryside